

List of questions for student preparation to the final modular control

1 Questions for the final lesson

on General Psychopathology (first module)

1. Sections of psychiatry. Issues of taxonomy of mental disorders. Classification of mental and behavioral disorders according to ICD-10.
2. The main stages of development of psychiatry.
3. Issues of organization of psychiatric and drug treatment in Ukraine.
4. Fundamentals of legislation in psychiatry. Legal issues of providing psychiatric care in Ukraine.
5. Methods of examination of patients with mental and behavioral disorders (clinical-psychopathological, pathopsychological, psychodiagnostic, method of functional diagnosis, neuroimaging, etc.).
6. Disorders of sensations (algae, paresthesia, senestopathy).
7. Disorders of perception. The main forms of illusions (pareidolic, affective, verbal), their clinical characteristics.
8. Hallucinations: definition and classification by the senses. Characteristics of visual, auditory (verbal), taste, olfactory and tactile hallucinations.
9. The difference between true and pseudo-hallucinations.
10. Psychosensory disorders (metamorphopsia, chronopsia, poropsia, macro- and micropsia).
11. Clinical picture of manic syndrome.
12. Clinical picture of depressive syndrome.
13. Characteristics of euphoria, dysphoria, weakness, kindness, anxiety, fear.
14. Clinic of pathological affect. Differential diagnosis between pathological and physiological affect.
15. Will: definition, main characteristics. Volitional disorders (hyper-, hypo-, parabulia).

16. Forms of psychomotor arousal: general characteristics and clinic of its various variants.
17. Stupor: general characteristics, different clinical variants of stupor.
18. Memory disorders: characteristics of the main forms of amnesia (progressive, fixation, retrograde, anterograde), hyper-, hypomnesia.
19. Paramnesias (pseudoreminiscence, confabulation, cryptomnesia).
20. The structure of intelligence according to K. Jaspers (prerequisites of intelligence, intelligence, intellectual baggage), the concept of IQ.
21. Acquired dementia. Causes. The main clinical manifestations. Organic amnesic syndrome (Korsakov syndrome). Lacunar and total dementia (their difference).
22. Congenital dementia (oligophrenia). Causes (exogenous - organic, endogenous, mixed). Clinic of dementia, imbecility and idiocy.
23. Clinical characteristics of the psychoorganic syndrome.
24. Disorders of thinking and their role in the behavior and adaptation of the patient.
25. Clinical characteristics of accelerated and retarded thinking.
26. Clinical characteristics of resonant, broken thinking (thematic slippage, schizophrenia), paralogical and symbolic thinking.
27. Clinical characteristics of inert thinking - thorough, perseverative, stereotyped.
28. Delusions: definitions, general features. Forms of behavior of the patient with delirium.
29. Kandinsky-Clerambo syndrome of mental automatism.
30. Delusional syndromes (paranoid, paranoid and paraphrenic forms of delirium).
31. Mechanisms of delusion of education. Interpretive and figurative delusion.
32. Dynamics of delusion formation (stage of delusional perception, crystallization of delusion, stage of regression of delusion).

33. Classification of forms of delusions by content (persecutory, expansive, depressive, etc.)
34. Consciousness: definitions, properties. Signs of clear consciousness.
35. Stunning: general characteristics.
36. Clinical features of obnubulation, somnolence, sopor and coma.
37. Differentiation between the states of sopor, coma and stupor.
38. Characteristics of delirium darkening of consciousness features of delirium in various diseases (alcoholic, vascular, intoxication delirium).
39. Clinical characteristics of twilight disorder of consciousness. Clinical variants of twilight disorder of consciousness: simple and productive variants, trance, ambulatory automatism, somnambulism, pathological intoxication.
40. Amentive eclipse of consciousness.
41. Clinical characteristics of oneiroid eclipse of consciousness.
42. Characteristics of paraphilia's (bulimia, anorexia, dromomania, pyromania, kleptomania).
43. The main forms of sexual perversions (paraphilia) (homosexuality, transvestism, transsexualism, pedo-ephebo - and gerontophilia, exhibitionism, zoophilia, necrophilia, fetishism, etc.).
44. Asthenic, obsessive, hysterical syndromes.
45. Clinical characteristics of a developed (convulsive) tonic-clonic attack.
46. General principles of treatment of mental illness.
47. Spectrum of action of neuroleptics. Clinical characteristics of typical and atypical neuroleptics.
48. Clinical spectrum of action of tranquilizers.
49. Clinical characteristics of antidepressants. Classification by chemical structure. Side effects.
50. Characteristics of normothymics.
51. Clinical characteristics of anticonvulsants.

52. Psychotherapy, sociotherapy and methods of psychological influence in the treatment of mental disorders. Biological methods of treatment of mental and behavioral disorders (craniocerebral hypothermia, electroconvulsive therapy, plasmapheresis, light therapy, etc.)

53. Questions of examination (forensic psychiatric, labor, military) in mental disorders.

2 Questions for the final lesson

(meaningful second module)

1. The concept of exogenous types of reactions K. Bongeffler.
2. The concept of Vick's transitional syndromes.
3. Classification of somatogenous psychopathological syndromes.
4. Mental disorders in hypertension and cerebral atherosclerosis.
5. Mental disorders in brain disasters (strokes, heart attacks, etc.).
6. Principles of treatment of patients with mental disorders with vascular pathology.
7. Mental disorders in endocrine diseases (diabetes, diffuse toxic goiter).
8. Postpartum psychosis.
9. Clinic of postoperative psychoses.
10. Clinic of mental disorders in brain tumors.
11. The course of mental disorders in traumatic brain injury. Clinic of mental disorders in the most acute and acute periods of traumatic brain injury. Clinic of mental disorders in the residual period of traumatic brain injury.
12. Mental disorders during the long-term consequences of traumatic brain injury.
13. Principles of therapy of mental disorders at different stages of traumatic brain injury.
14. Infectious psychoses. Treatment of mental disorders in infectious psychoses.
15. Mental disorders in AIDS.
16. Clinic of mental disorders in poisoning by drugs, household chemicals. Principles of treatment of mental disorders in poisoning.

17. Mental disorders in radiation brain damage.
18. The etiopathogenesis of chronic alcoholism. Clinic I, II, III stages of alcoholism.
19. Somatoneurological disorders in alcoholism.
20. Clinic of alcoholic delirium. Options for severe (musculoskeletal and occupational delirium).
21. Clinic of other forms of alcoholic psychoses (hallucinations, encephalopathic psychoses, paranoids).
22. General principles of treatment of chronic alcoholism.
23. Emergency care for alcoholic delirium.
24. Clinical picture of drug intoxication. Examination of intoxication.
25. Clinic of syndromes of mental and physical dependence in drug addiction.
26. Clinic of various forms of drug addiction (opium, hashish mania, drug addiction: the main groups and their clinic).
27. Characteristics of I, II and III stages of drug addiction.
28. Features of personality changes in drug addiction.
29. General principles of drug treatment.
30. The question of the etiopathogenesis of epilepsy. Generalized and focal forms of epilepsy - common characteristics.
31. Clinic of major seizure.
32. Clinic of small seizures in epilepsy.
33. Clinic of focal epileptic seizures.
34. Features of personality changes in epilepsy.
35. Diagnosis of epilepsy.
36. General principles of treatment of epilepsy, anticonvulsants.
37. Status epilepticus: clinic, principles of emergency care.
38. Issues of etiopathogenesis of schizophrenia (biological and socio-mental concept).

39. The main forms of schizophrenia, their clinic. Types of schizophrenia.

40. Febrile (hypertoxic) schizophrenia: clinic, principles of emergency care.

41. General principles of treatment of schizophrenia.

42. Types of BAR (bipolar affective disorder).

43. Clinic of the manic phase.

44. Clinic of the depressive phase.

45. Other depressive disorders: cyclothymia, larval depression.

46. General principles of treatment of affective disorders.

47. Mental disorders during menopause.

48. Clinic of involuntional melancholy.

49. Clinic of involuntional paranoid.

50. Clinical features of hallucinations of old age.

51. Mental disorders in atrophic diseases of the brain (Alzheimer's and Pick's disease).

52. Neurotic, somatoform and stress-related mental disorders. Classification of psychogenic, the main forms of disorders.

53. Clinical picture of neurasthenia.

54. Clinic of obsessive-compulsive disorder (obsessive-compulsive disorder).

55. Clinic of conversion and dissociative (hysterical) disorders.

56. Principles of treatment of neurotic conditions.

57. Clinic and principles of therapy of reactive states. The concept of post-traumatic stress disorder. Combat mental trauma.

58. Disorders personally.